

THE PROVINCIAL COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Effective Date: 13 July 2020 (unless otherwise stated in this Notice)

NP 19 (New additions in red)

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION AND PUBLIC

COVID-19: RESUMPTION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Provincial Court of British Columbia recognizes that the Province is still impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The Chief Public Health Officers of Canada and the Province still require people to keep a safe distance from each other, but currently there can be a cautious reopening of public places with health and safety protocols in place to minimize the transmission of the virus. Taking this into account, the Provincial Court has developed the plan set out in this Notice to resume further court operations.

As of July 13, 2020, Provincial Court registries will be accepting all filings at the applicable court registry either in-person or remotely (by mail, email, fax to fax filing registries under GEN 01 Practice Direction, or using Court Services Online where available). To protect the health and safety of all court users and help contain the spread of COVID-19 while maintaining access to the Court, parties are encouraged to use remote filing options wherever possible.

Criminal, family, small claims, and youth court trials and hearings scheduled after July 3, 2020 will remain on the trial list on the date scheduled. Counsel and self-represented litigants should attend court in-person on the date scheduled at 9:00 AM to advise if they are ready to proceed that day. The Court will determine which trials will proceed. Witnesses and parties represented by counsel are to wait outside the courthouse (within a 30 minute distance) and be prepared to be called to attend court in-person. Criminal trials, preliminary inquiries and continuations of trials and preliminary inquiries (excluding summary proceedings court files) that are not able to proceed due to lack of court time or are otherwise adjourned will be scheduled for a pre-trial conference before a new hearing date is scheduled. Family and small claims case conferences will proceed by audio or videoconference on their scheduled dates.

The directions in this Notice are subject to change as circumstances of the pandemic change.

b. Urgent Family Matters

The pre-COVID process for having urgent matters come before the Court applies. See the following link for further details: <https://www.provincialcourt.bc.ca/types-of-cases/family-matters/without-notice-orders>.

c. New Filings

As of July 13, 2020, Provincial Court registries will be accepting all filings at the applicable court registry either in-person or remotely (by mail, email, fax to fax filing registries under GEN 01 Practice Direction, or using Court Services Online where available). To protect the health and safety of all court users and help contain the spread of COVID-19 while maintaining access to the Court, parties are encouraged to use remote filing options wherever possible.

Applications in family matters may be accompanied by affidavits, written statements of fact that have been sworn or affirmed to be true before a commissioner for oaths such as a lawyer or justice of the peace. In order to reduce the number of people attending court registries to swear affidavits the Chief Judge is advising Provincial Court registries that the materials filed need not be sworn or affirmed at this time (during COVID-19). The judge who hears the matter may attach whatever weight they consider appropriate to unsworn or unaffirmed documents. People submitting affidavits must still take care to ensure their affidavits are accurate and true. If there is a hearing the judge will likely require them to swear or affirm that the contents of their affidavit are true at the hearing. See, also, NP 20 Affidavits for use in Court Proceedings. The only exception is that Affidavits of Personal Service need to be sworn/affirmed before filing if the person who served the documents will not be attending the hearing.

d. Early Resolution Process and Expedited Court Process to Change or Suspend Child or Spousal Support Due to COVID-19

On July 2, 2020 a new process was implemented where a party is only seeking a suspension or change to an existing agreement or order of the Provincial Court about child support or spousal support as a result of a change in income since January 2020 that is related to COVID-19.

The new process to change support, which people may choose to use, will:

1. see whether they and the other party can agree on a change (the “early resolution process”) and, if so, the early resolution service may assist the parties to prepare a written agreement or consent order package for the court; or
2. hold a hearing on their application by telephone or videoconference (the “expedited court process”).

Parties wanting to address other issues, such as parenting arrangements or changes to child or spousal support for reasons not related to COVID-19 cannot use this process. They may make an application in the normal course through the applicable Provincial Court registry.

For details see the Provincial Court’s Practice Direction “FAM 08: Early resolution process and expedited court process to change or suspend child or spousal support due to COVID-19”.

This direction suspends the CRIM 03 Practice Direction regarding Daytime Search Warrant Applications until further notice.

For all judicial authorizations, including judge only warrants, peace officers should contact the Justice Centre. Do not attend your local courthouse in-person.

Until further notice, all applications for judicial authorization that can be made by telecommunication should be made by telecommunication for judicial consideration, unless a judge or justice directs otherwise. In-person applications for all applications that can be made by telewarrant pursuant to section 487.1 of the Criminal Code will not be accepted by the Justice Centre.

Affidavits in support of applications for all judicial authorizations must be properly sworn before being transmitted to the judge or justice.

Please see the Memo from the Chief Judge regarding Judicial Authorizations at the Justice Centre During COVID-19 for further details.

6. SECTION 490 DETENTION OF THINGS SEIZED

Section 490 Criminal Code extension applications will be heard by telephone. New applications must include a date/time and phone number that the applicant and disputant can attend by telephone. On the day of the telephone hearing, if the matter is uncontested, and service has been proven, the CSB Justice of the Peace or Judicial Justice will review the application along with supporting materials filed. If the matter is contested, the CSB Justice of the Peace or Judicial Justice will obtain the telephone contact information for the applicant and disputant and provide that to the applicable local Judicial Case Manager, who will arrange to have a Provincial Court Judge determine by telephone any next steps.

7. APPLICATION TO RENDER ACCUSED BY SURETY

Those no longer wanting to be sureties for an accused can fill out the form, Application to render accused by surety pursuant to s. 766\(1\) of the Criminal Code (PCR 967), and make that application by filing the form at the applicable local court registry.

IV. PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY MATTERS

Matters related to public health and safety and the COVID-19 pandemic, including matters under the Quarantine Act, Public Health Act and similar statutes and regulations can be filed at the applicable local court registry.

V. TRAFFIC, TICKET OR BYLAW MATTERS

Bylaw matters, that were commenced by an information (not a ticket), with hearings previously scheduled for March 18, 2020 and thereafter, are adjourned for rescheduling without the disputant having to attend Court. Parties will be sent a new notice of hearing that will include the date, time and location of the hearing.

All matters commenced by a violation ticket (including motor vehicle violation tickets) with hearings previously scheduled for March 18, 2020 and thereafter were adjourned for rescheduling. The Court is now resuming scheduling these hearings in some locations. A large number of people attend these hearings. In order to keep the public, court users, court staff, and judicial officers safe and physically distant while providing access to justice, the Court has worked together with Court Services Branch (including the Sheriff Service) and Corporate Management Services Branch to identify alternate hearing locations and/or alternate hearing times to accommodate people attending these hearings as follows:

| Provincial Court Location Where Matter Originally Scheduled | Hearing Location | Date Hearings Commence | Hearing Dates | Hearing Times |

| Victoria | University of Victoria (Murray and Anne Fraser Building) | July 20, 2020 | Monday to Friday | 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM |

All of these locations were assessed by an experienced professional consultant to ensure they meet the health and safety requirements established by the Provincial Health Officer and WorkSafeBC. This work was done in consultation with the judiciary and stakeholders. The health and safety protocols put in place are available on the Attorney General's website. These locations will be configured to accommodate physical distancing, however, to assist with that distancing the Court asks that only counsel, parties, and witnesses involved in the hearings before the Court, as well as members of the accredited media, attend these hearings.

Parties will be sent a new notice of hearing that will include the date, time and location (including the address) of the hearing. Start times will be staggered so that all participants are not at the hearing location at the same time. Parties who receive a notice of hearing and require interpreter services for their hearing must contact the Violation Ticket Center at 1-877-661-8026 prior to their hearing date.

Anyone appearing for a hearing must be in full compliance with all of the Provincial Health Officer's Orders or directions regarding COVID-19. The Court's Notice to the Profession and Public 22: Resuming In-Person Proceedings During COVID-19 Health and Safety Protocols applies to these hearings (with the exception that some parts of that Notice are specific to court locations such as the references to court registries). Participants should review NP 22 and should be aware of the following:

- Those entering will be subject to a verbal screening process by the Sheriff Service.
- Participants in a proceeding are encouraged and permitted to wear a mask or protective face covering in the courtroom if they wish to do so, subject to direction from the Judicial Officer, if removal of a mask is necessary in order for the participant's evidence or submissions to be heard and understood. Participants should be aware that the Judicial Officer and the sheriff may or may not wear a mask.

Provincial Court registries will accept all filings at the applicable court registry either in-person or remotely (by mail, email, fax to fax filing registries under GEN 01 Practice Direction, or using Court Services Online where available). To protect the health and safety of all court users and help contain the spread of COVID-19 while maintaining access to the Court, parties are encouraged to use remote filing options wherever possible. [Where filing is by email and the location has an email address specific to a criminal registry (such as the Surrey Courthouse) the email should be directed to that email address.]

Filings will not be accepted at alternate hearing locations such as schools and universities, nor at court registries on evenings or weekends.

Disputants have the options of:

- Filing Written Reasons including a request for a fine reduction and/or time to pay (link to form: <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/law-crime-and-justice/courthouse-services/court-files-records/court-forms/traffic/ptr022.pdf>)
- Paying the fine(s) on the ticket

The timeline to pay fines related to a Provincial Court traffic, ticket, or bylaw case is extended to July 15, 2020.

To dispute a violation ticket and have a trial date assigned as a future available court date, the Disputant can download a form and mail it in to: Ticket Dispute Processing, Bag 3510, Victoria, B.C. V8W 3P7.
