

June 20, 2017

Judicial Council to adopt online system for appointment applications

VANCOUVER, BC: - On September 5, 2017, the Judicial Council of BC will adopt an online application process for all Provincial Court appointments: Judge, Judicial Justice, and Justice of the Peace.

Paper applications will not be accepted after this date. Therefore, candidates for any of these appointments should complete and submit a paper application before Labour Day, or wait until September 5 to begin the process online.

Starting September 5, all online application forms will be available on the Provincial Court website: www.provincialcourt.bc.ca. Watch the website and eNews for more information.