Judicial Council launches online system for appointment applications

On September 5, 2017 the Judicial Council of British Columbia launched an online application process for all judicial appointments to the Provincial Court: judges, judicial justices, and justices of the peace. As of this date, the Court will no longer accept paper applications.

The following applications are available on the Provincial Court website:

- Judicial candidate application (for appointment as a judge)
- Judicial Justice candidate application
- Judicial re-appointment application (for reappointment of a retired judge)
- Justice of the Peace application

For more information on the Provincial Court appointment process, see Judicial Council's Annual Reports. For more information on this initiative, see the Court's website.
