

November 3, 2022

CHETWYND COURTHOUSE CLOSURE TODAY

Due to flooding, the Chetwynd Provincial Court location in the Northern Region of the Province is closed today.

Family, civil and criminal appearances scheduled for November 3, 2022 at the Chetwynd Provincial Court will be heard at 2:00 p.m. today with participants joining remotely by MS Teams. Participants present at the Courthouse this morning were provided with an MS Teams link.

- Family and civil appearances scheduled for November 3, 2022 where participants are unable to attend at 2:00 p.m. today will be adjourned to December 22, 2022 at the Chetwynd courthouse, or as otherwise directed by the Judicial Case Manager.
- Criminal appearances scheduled for November 3, 2022 where participants are unable to attend at 2:00 p.m. today will be call dated to December 22, 2022 at the Chetwynd courthouse, or as otherwise directed by the Judicial Case Manager. Where accused are unable to attend at 2:00 p.m. today bench warrants will be issued for those accused persons, but will be held and not executed until the next scheduled appearance date. If the accused person appears personally or through counsel/agent on the next scheduled appearance date the bench warrant will be vacated.

If you have an appearance scheduled at this location and require further information please call the Judicial Case Manager in Fort St. John at 250-787-3416.

The situation will continue to be monitored and updated on the Provincial Court website.