

THE PROVINCIAL COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Effective Date: 16 February 2021 (unless otherwise stated in this Notice)

NP 19 Additions in red

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION AND PUBLIC
COURT OPERATIONS DURING COVID-19

The Provincial Court of British Columbia recognizes that the Province is still impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. The Chief Public Health Officers of Canada and the Province still require people to keep a safe distance from each other, but currently there can be a cautious reopening of public places with health and safety protocols in place to minimize the transmission of the virus. Taking this into account, the Provincial Court has resumed court operations as described in this Notice (NP 19). This version of NP 19 has been substantially revised to reflect current court operations only and remove historical information. Archived versions of NP 19 are available here. The directions in this Notice are subject to change as circumstances of the pandemic change. Anyone appearing for an in-person hearing must be in full compliance with all of the Provincial Health Officer’s Orders or directions regarding COVID-19 and Notice to the Profession and Public 22: In-Person Proceedings During COVID-19 Health and Safety Protocols. For virtual proceedings, see NP 21 Guide to Virtual Proceedings.

I. FILINGS

Provincial Court registries are accepting all filings at the applicable court registry either in person or remotely (by mail, email, fax to fax filing registries under GEN 01 Practice Direction, or using Court Services Online where available). To protect the health and safety of all court users and help contain the spread of COVID-19 while maintaining access to the Court, parties are encouraged to use remote filing options wherever possible.

Applications in family and small claims matters may be accompanied by affidavits, written statements of fact that have been sworn or affirmed to be true before a commissioner for oaths such as a lawyer or justice of the peace. In order to reduce the number of people attending court registries the Chief Judge is advising Provincial Court registries that the materials filed need not be sworn or affirmed at this time (during COVID-19). The judge who hears the matter may attach whatever weight they consider appropriate to unsworn or unaffirmed documents. People submitting affidavits must still take care to ensure their affidavits are accurate and true. If there is a hearing the judge will likely require them to swear or affirm that the contents of their affidavit are true at the hearing. See, also, NP 20 Affidavits for use in Court Proceedings. The only exception is that Affidavits of Personal Service need to be sworn/affirmed before filing if the person who served the documents will not be attending the hearing.

During COVID-19, the Chief Judge is advising Provincial Court registries to accept family Applications and Notices of Motion with typewritten or electronic signatures.

Police must send Informations by telecommunication (fax or telephone) to the applicable local court registry. The process hearing will be done by telephone.

Information about judicial authorizations is set out below in Part V, section 8.

II. PROVINCIAL SUSPENSION OF LIMITATION PERIODS REMAINS IN PLACE (SMALL CLAIMS AND FAMILY) UNTIL MARCH 25, 2021

Effective March 26, 2020, the Minister of Public Safety and Solicitor General suspended limitation periods and mandatory time periods in British Columbia enactments or laws for the commencement of a small claims or family action. See Ministerial Order No. M086 (Limitations Order No. 1).

Effective April 15, 2020, Ministerial Order No. M086 was repealed and replaced by Ministerial Order No. M098, which suspends limitation periods and mandatory time periods in British Columbia enactments or laws for the commencement of a small claims or family action, (Limitations Order No. 2).

On July 8, 2020, the Legislature passed the COVID-19 Related Measures Act, S.B.C. 2020, c. 8 (“Act”). The Act came into force on July 10, 2020. The Act continues the suspension of mandatory limitation periods and other mandatory time periods in British Columbia enactments or laws for commencing a small claims or family action as set out in Limitations Order No. 1 and Limitations Order No. 2.

On August 4, 2020, the Lieutenant Governor made the COVID-19 (Limitation Periods in Court Proceedings) Regulation, B.C. Reg. 199/2020 (“Regulation”) and amended the Act. The Regulation and the Act provide that the suspension of mandatory limitation periods and any other mandatory time periods in British Columbia enactments or laws for commencing a small claims or family action in the Provincial Court of British Columbia will end 90 days after the date the state of emergency expires or is cancelled.

On December 21, 2020, it was announced by government that the suspension of limitation periods is no longer linked to the duration of the state of emergency, and the suspension will end on March 25, 2021. (See OIC 655)

All materials to be relied on must be provided to the court two days in advance of the hearing. Those materials will include the picklist terms as part of any peace bond, probation order, or conditional sentence order.
