

- NP 19 Notice to the Profession and Public - COVID 19 Resumption of Court Operations;
- FAM 07 CFCSA Consent Requisitions;
- CRIM 13 Initial Appearance Court During COVID-19 \(Consent Requisition form\); and
- Small Claims - Consent to adjourn settlement conference form, Consent to adjourn trial conference form.

for the processes to adjourn matters remotely. Counsel are also encouraged to obtain a designation of counsel on all indictable offences.

The Judicial Case Manager's offices operate on a remote basis only at this time.

History of Notice to the Profession and Public

- Original Notice to the Profession and Public effective June 15, 2020
- See also NP 19 Notice to the Profession and Public - COVID 19.
- The Supreme Court of British Columbia's COVID-19 Notices and Announcements are posted here.
- Amended Notice to Profession and Public effective July 13, 2020 (housekeeping amendments consequential to NP 19 COVID: Resumption of Court Operations – July 13, 2020).
- Amended Notice to Profession and Public effective on September 15, 2020 (adds to para. 1 that counsel must also be in a position to swear that, to their knowledge, no one involved on their side traveled outside Canada within 14 days of their participation in person appearance in a courtroom; and deletes last paragraph regarding unavailability of public listening stations).
- October 7, 2020 revised with housekeeping changes to remove historical dates.

Melissa Gillmore
 Chief Justice
 Provincial Court of British Columbia