

	Appearance Type	Participants Default Attendance Method	Related Notices/ PDs
G. TRAFFIC, TICKET, BYLAW
38.	Hearings	In person

History of Notice to the Profession and Public

- Original notice issued June 16, 2022 and effective July 18, 2022.
- Revised Notice issued July 8, 2022 and effective July 18, 2022: housekeeping changes, including to Appendix “A” (D.18.) consequential to FAM 12, and adding reference in Part V to CFCSA Application to Change Method of Attendance Form.
- Revised Notice effective December 19, 2022: changes consequential to Revised CFCSA Rules and housekeeping changes.
- Revised Notice effective January 9, 2023: consequential update of CRIM 14 Practice Direction title to include Island Region.
- Revised Notice effective January 14, 2023: consequential update per amended title of revised CRIM 03 Practice Direction.
- Revised Notice effective April 20, 2023: housekeeping changes, including updating title and preamble and removing reference to a local reference from Part VI; and in Appendix A adding “unless a judge orders otherwise” under several items in the Criminal section and, for consistency, replacing “subject to application to Court” with “unless a judge orders otherwise”.
- Revised Notice effective July 17, 2023: housekeeping change to Part IV, section 1 to reflect current process of applications to vary bail by consent to be sent to applicable local court registry.

By Direction of Chief Judge Melissa Gillespie
Provincial Court of British Columbia

September 18, 2023
Expired 18, 2023