

June 3, 2019

COURT ADMINISTRATION

VANCOUVER, B.C. - The Provincial Court of British Columbia announces that retired Judge Rick Miller has been re-appointed to the court for a one year term effective June 3, 2019

Rick Miller was appointed to the court in 1994, and he sat primarily in Surrey. He worked in all divisions of the court. Judge Miller elected to the Senior Judge program in 2011, mandatorily retiring after his seven year term in March 2018.

It is also my pleasure to advise you of the assignments and transfers pertaining to the following Judges of our Court:

Effective July 1, 2019, Judge Alex Wolf will transfer from the Fraser Region to the Vancouver Island Region with resident Chambers in Port Alberni, British Columbia.

Effective June 1, 2019, Judge Ronald Webb transferred from Chambers in Port Alberni to Nanaimo to commence his Senior Judge sitting duties.

Melissa Gillespie
Chief Judge
Provincial Court of British Columbia