

THE PROVINCIAL COURT
OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Effective Date: 16 July 2020

FAM 09

PRACTICE DIRECTION

CONSENT ADJOURNMENT (FLA/FMEA)

Purpose

To set out the procedure for adjourning matters under the Family Law Act, S.B.C. 2011, c. 25 (FLA) or the Family Maintenance Enforcement Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 127 (FMEA) from one family remand date to another or to adjourn generally.

Application

This practice direction applies to all court registries in the Province.

Direction

1. Effective July 16, 2020 until further direction, counsel may complete and file a Consent Adjourment Form (Form) by email to the applicable local court registry to adjourn matters under the FLA or FMEA from one family remand date to another or to adjourn generally, where at least one party is represented by counsel and the filing counsel has obtained the consent of all other parties or their counsel.
2. Counsel shall use one Form for each court file and each remand date, and may only use the Form where counsel is adjourning a matter from one list date to another with the same time estimate (or less).
3. Counsel shall select one of the following on the Form:
 - a. “Adjourned to one of the following two (2) available dates/times to be set by the Registry” (the court registry will confirm the new date by reply email);
 - b. “Adjourned to date/time” for matters previously scheduled by the JCM where the new date has been provided by the JCM;
 - c. “Adjourned to the JCM to be rescheduled” if the appearance was previously scheduled by a JCM, unless they have already obtained a date from the JCM in advance; or

- d. “Adjourned generally”.
4. Counsel shall email the Form to the applicable local court registry by 4:00 p.m. at least one clear business day in advance of the scheduled appearance.
 5. The Consent Adjournment Form cannot be used to adjourn trials. Please use the Consent to Court Date Form to adjourn trials.
